Our Story

O'Shucks

ahh sushi!

O'Shucks
Restaurant Group
www.oshucks-ahhsushi.com

Bruce and Deb Corrigan have been a part of the Park City/Summit County community for three decades. They built O'Shucks Bar & Grill on Main Street with Park City locals in mind. Businesses often shut down during the off-season but O'Shucks on Main Street is proud to claim it has been open every day, except for when forced to close by the pandemic, since opening their first location in 1994. They opened a second O'Shucks in Salt Lake City in 1997 and added sushi to the mix with Ahh Sushi downtown in 2002. The third location in Pinebrook opened in 2006 and expanded to include Bruce & Deb's breakfast. Their latest venture is O'Shucks, The White House, another breakfast, sushi and burger place scheduled to open Summer 2023 on Park Avenue in Park City. Bruce and Deb's sons, Jack, Ben, & Willie all work within the businesses. "It's a family affair." says Deb, "Our restaurants are much like our three sons; they are related, but each very different and I'm very proud of all of them."
